BROWN DEER PLACE TO HOST FISH FRY FUNDRAISER BENEFITING THE EAST CENTRAL IOWA ALZHEIMER'S ASSOCIATION MARCH 2ND

JOHNSON COUNTY – Brown Deer Place Retirement Living and Memory Care Community, a recently renovated retirement community located north of Iowa City at 1500 First Avenue North in Coralville, will be hosting a Fish Fry Fundraiser on Friday, March 2nd, in order to raise money for the East Central Iowa Alzheimer's Association.

For only $15, attendees will be treated to a meal of beer battered fish with house-made tartar sauce, creamy coleslaw, french fries, hushpuppies, assorted desserts and the choice of coffee, iced tea, water, wine or beer. Dining times will be held at 5:00 P.M. and 6:30 P.M.

“After the success of last year’s fish fry fundraiser, we knew this would become an annual event,” shared Brown Deer Place Manager, Tanner Erwin. “The Alzheimer’s Association is a very worthy organization and we are happy to say that all funds raised will go directly to the East Central Iowa Chapter.” For more information or to register for your dining time, please call 319-337-6320.
