GARDEN VIEW SENIOR COMMUNITY UNDERGOES CHANGE IN OWNERSHIP & MANGEMENT EFFECTIVE JANUARY 2

CLAYTON COUNTY – Garden View Senior Community, an established Retirement Community located at 800 Darby Drive in Monona, Iowa, will undergo a change in ownership as of January 2, 2019.

In a meeting of the Monona City council on the evening on Monday, November 5th, the City voted to sell the 34-apartment Independent, Assisted Living and Memory Care community to local investors in the senior living industry. The community was built in 2005 and has been under the City of Monona’s direction since opening. “We saw a lot of potential in Garden View since it is located in such a pleasant area and already serves a great need for local seniors,” said an investor. “It is not our goal to change the community completely, but to offer enhanced services and amenities under the guidance of a new management company.”

Senior Housing Management out of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, will be assuming management duties on a local level. “Senior Housing Management operates under the philosophy of ‘rolling out the red carpet.’ It is our hope that you will feel this hospitality and see the positive impact of our standards and expectations when you visit Garden View in the future.” Explains Allison Law, Senior Vice President and Chief Operating Officer. “As Iowa’s largest Retirement Living management company, we couldn’t be happier to welcome the community’s residents and staff into our growing family. Residents, staff and community members have much to look forward to!”
